
PIBC Constitution

CONSTITUTION:

1. The name of the Society is the 'PLANNING INSTITUTE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA'.
2. The purposes of the Society are:
 - (a) To promote through community and regional planning the orderly disposition and use of land, natural resources, buildings, and services with a view to the social and economic efficiency, health and well-being of urban and rural communities and regions;
 - (b) To advance the study and practice of community and regional planning and kindred subjects and of arts and sciences as applied to them;
 - (c) To promote high standards of professional competence and conduct in the practice of community and regional planning;
 - (d) To promote the association and professional interests of those engaged in the practice of community and regional planning.
3. The Society is a member-funded society. It is funded primarily by its members to carry on activities for the benefit of its members. On its liquidation or dissolution, this Society may distribute its money and other property to its members.
