

PLANNER (REGULAR, FULL-TIME)

The North Okanagan is an exceptional place to live, work and play. With its diverse natural beauty, robust economy and extraordinary recreational opportunities, it's no wonder our residents enjoy such an outstanding quality of life. With a regional population of 85,000, the Regional District of North Okanagan (RDNO) offers a wide range of services directly to residents and through partnerships with its six member municipalities.

We have an immediate opening for the full-time position of Planner. The successful candidate will have a university degree in Planning or related field, experience in land use planning, preferably in a local government setting, a membership in or eligibility for membership in the Canadian Institute of Planners and a valid Class 5 driver's licence.

You are detail oriented, possess solid research and analytical skills and are an excellent communicator. You have superior customer service skills and can sensitively manage private information. You are well versed in development application procedures, zoning, subdivision and procedural regulations and can effectively respond to in-person enquiries.

Reporting to the Deputy Planning Manager, the Planner researches, prepares, and presents reports on electoral area development applications, intergovernmental referrals in accordance with Official Community Plan policies, zoning, subdivision and procedural regulations and other legal requirements.

Come be part of a great team who takes pride in their work to enhance the very reasons the North Okanagan is such a great place to live, work and play. This position offers an hourly wage range of $33.41 to $38.39, as well as an extensive benefits package and compressed work schedule.
