

GIS Day!
NOVEMBER
14, 2019

Disaster Management:

Planning for uncertainty in a changing climate

10 - 11:30 am in The Pit

- Poster session with students
- Columbia Basin Climate Source Portal Demo

12 - 1:00 pm in K-10

- Climate Adaptation and Economic Disaster Resilience with Local Governments
Jayme Jones, Rural Development Institute
- GIS for the Emergency Operation Centre, Bart Fyffe,
Regional District of Kootenay Boundary
- Civic Addressing for Disaster Response, Heather Potter,
Regional District of Kootenay Boundary

1:30 - 3:30 pm in Staff Lounge

- Ground and drone based LiDAR workshop/info session in the Staff Lounge

6:00 - 8:00 pm

- Movie night at the Old Castle Theatre (185 Columbia Avenue)

This free public event provides an opportunity to interact with Selkirk College Geographic Information Systems (GIS) faculty, students, and local GIS professionals to discuss GIS technology and how it relates to disaster management. selkirk.ca/gis

ENVIRONMENT
& GEOMATICS