University of Northern British Columbia

The Community Development Institute at UNBC is dedicated to understanding and realizing the potential of BC's non-metropolitan communities in a changing global economy, preparing students and practitioners for leadership roles in community and economic development, and creating a body of knowledge, information, and research that will enhance our understanding and our ability to deal with the impacts of ongoing transformation.

In keeping with the vision of the University of Northern British Columbia, the Community Development Institute is committed to working with all communities – Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal – to help them further their aspirations in community and regional development.

2014 CANADIAN RURAL REVITALIZATION FOUNDATION CONFERENCE

Join rural leaders, community and economic development practitioners, government policy makers, researchers, and students to discuss the issues at the heart of rural and resource sector development across Canada.
