about

Lost Rivers (CatBird Films) will take us across the globe, retracing the history of lost urban rivers by plunging into archival maps and going underground with clandestine urban explorers. We'll search for the disappeared Petite Rivière St-Pierre in Montreal, the River Tyburn in London, the Saw Mill River in New York, and the Bova-Celato River in Bresica. Along the way, we'll meet visionary urban thinkers, activists and artists from around the world. Following the film, we will turn our thinking to water priorities in the Victoria region through a moderated panel discussion with local experts:

Scott Murdoch, Murdoch de Greeff Inc.

Ed Robertson, City of Victoria

Nikki Curnow, Bowker Creek Initiative

Kirk Stinchcombe, Econics & POLIS Project (moderator)
