

The District of North Saanich is celebrating its 50th birthday!

Officially incorporated August 19, 1965, the District will commemorate this local historical event with a series of community events.

The first three events will be in February, May and July:

1) Heritage Week – Heart of Community

Story Telling (the 1st of 3) – captured in Time Capsule – February 17 at the District of North Saanich Municipal Hall 2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

2) Then & Now Exhibit

Community members will be invited to share then and now photos, recipes, artifacts for a small exhibit at the Sidney Museum in May.

3) Jubilee Community BBQ

The District of North Saanich will co-host the Aviation Museum Annual Open House BBQ Sunday, July 26.

Other events are in the works and may include a pancake breakfast, pit cook, wine fest and Halloween celebrations.

If you wish to share a story for Heritage Week, or share photos, recipes or artifacts for the Sidney Museum and Municipal Hall exhibits, please contact Dawn Gould, Jubilee Communications at 250-655-5459 or by e-mail: dgould@northsaanich.ca

Watch for forthcoming Jubilee announcements on the District website: www.northsaanich.ca - Jubilee link.
