

Cultural Connections: Understanding the Village

First People's House UVIC

"We must learn from the past
before we can move into the future"

Justice Murray Sinclair, TRC

Join Indigenous elders and Residential school survivors on a journey through the last 200 years of relationships between Canada and the First Peoples of this land.

Participants will gain deep knowledge and understanding and will come away with tools to share with their workplaces, family and community as they travel the path of reconciliation.

Friday, March 3, 2017

$50 ($25 for PIBC members)

Includes a feast with participants and elders
