Planner 1

Full Time, Temporary Up To 12-Month Term Position

Position Overview

Reporting to the General Manager of Development Services or designate, the Planner 1 will assist in a number of ongoing, long-range planning projects; such as, official community plans, zoning bylaws and comprehensive development plans. They will also assist in the processing of current planning files; such as, subdivision referrals and Agricultural Land Reserve applications. This is an excellent opportunity to work in a northern resource region and gain experience working with multiple jurisdictions and authorities.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will be a current student or recent graduate of a Planning program in Canada, and will have a solid understanding of Local Government planning in British Columbia. Proven skills in research and data analysis, experience in a fast paced environment, and strong written communication skills are required.

Additional Information

This position is available for a term at either the Dawson Creek or Fort St. John PRRD offices. Candidates must indicate their availability upon application.

The hours of work are Monday to Friday, from 8:30 am – 4:30 pm, with one hour for lunch.

The after probation wage rate for this position is $28.02/hr, plus 14% in lieu of benefits. The applicant will be asked to provide a Class 5, BC Driver's License abstract.

We thank all candidates for their interest, however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.
