

DAWSON CITY, YUKON COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT & PLANNING OFFICER Permanent, Full-Time

Dawson City, Yukon, is home of the Klondike Gold Rush and the heart of Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in Traditional Territory; we're proud of our mining heritage and First Nations roots that run millennia deep. We're a thriving cultural community—with a post-secondary arts school, several world-renowned festivals, and burgeoning TV and film industry—that borders an outdoor playground sprawling hundreds of kilometres in either direction. We're a living historic community, with many landscape features and buildings that support our national historic site designation.

Mining, tourism, culture, and our people are the foundation on which our town stands, and we respect personal freedoms and diversity of all definitions. We're a welcoming town and a great place to make a life and raise a family. Our community has a new hospital and programming and activities that promote healthy lifestyles. We have a recreation centre, curling club, swimming pool, fitness centre, nine-hole golf course, off-leash dog park, and a ski hill. We enjoy an abundance of green spaces, including hiking, biking, and cross-country-ski trails. We also have a K–12 school, Yukon College campus, healthy business community, and numerous groups and organizations in which to get involved.

Under the direction of the Chief Administrative Officer, the Community Development & Planning Officer performs a variety of community development and planning, economic development, and land administration functions. The successful candidate should be interested in a career in land-use planning, heritage management, or municipal administration. This role supervises the Planning & Development Assistant.
